Cam 350 for Mac is a program designed to help you manage your camera's image..METACUTA, La. - A Cajun Navy volunteer was killed when he was struck by a fire truck while trying to rescue another volunteer who fell through a roadway bridge on Friday. The accident occurred in Cut Off, Louisiana, at about 2:30 a.m., according to the New Orleans Fire Department. "The cause of the accident is still under investigation," Lieutenant Angelo Cangelosi of the New Orleans Fire Department said. CNS asked Cangelosi if authorities had made an arrest. "Due to our internal investigation we don't want to discuss that today," Cangelosi said. The accident occurred at a bridge over the Atchafalaya River near the Cut Off-Ruston Road. The driver of the fire truck was not injured, he said. The man who was being rescued died at the scene, Cangelosi said. The bridge accident closed the road for several hours. The Cajun Navy, a volunteer group of people from across Louisiana that comes to each other's rescue when need be, said in a Facebook post that the fallen man was an "unborn child from the same parish." "I spoke to the siblings of the deceased and we are focusing on a peaceful funeral for him," Cajun Navy leader Captain Cliff Ducote, of Cut Off, said in a phone interview early Saturday. "I am truly sorry for the tragedy that occurred on the Cut Off-Hodge Road today. We will keep the family of the deceased in our prayers," Ducote said.
